Gifts of the Friends of the Nantucket Historical Association

Founded in 1986 by visionary collectors with the purpose of securing valuable and vulnerable Nantucket treasures for posterity, the Friends of the Nantucket Historical Association have donated many of the museum's cherished acquisitions over the past quarter century. The gifts of the Friends, selections of which are presented here in the 2012 NHA Business Calendar, include examples of Nantucket fine art, decorative art, whaling paraphernalia, and island artifacts. The NHA publication Island Treasures: Gifts of the Friends of the Nantucket Historical Association, 1986-2011 (available in the Museum Shop) presents the complete range of Friends gifts, including paintings by Gilbert Stuart, Eastman Johnson, and George Inness; portraits of the Nantucket whaleship Spermo; scrimshaw; whaling logs and journals; maritime instruments; the Frederick Slade Nantucket Windsor chair; lightship baskets; silver; and China Trade souvenirs.
